

I strongly urge the commission to NOT allow the use of Cellphones on commercial airlines. The stresses of flying for many people are enough given today's heightened security and terrorist aware public. To introduce another level of stress to this environment would be detrimental to a reduced stress environment that many of us hope for.